

Themed Friday:

Quiz Thirteen: Money.

Well I hope that didn't prove too difficult although I expect Clues 16 and 19 took a while for some of you. I also expect some of you learnt some new slang phrases for money – personally I can never remember how much a monkey or a joey or a pony is supposed to be: it just seems easier to mention the correct figure!

Anyway hope you enjoyed it.

- | | |
|--|---------------------------------------|
| 1. Girl's name | Penny |
| 2. To hit something hard | Pound |
| 3. Coronation Street's Elsie? | Tanner |
| 4. Royalty might wear one? | Crown |
| 5. Type of "pig" | Guinea |
| 6. Musical starring Tommy Steele | Half a Sixpence |
| 7. He appeared in "Friends" | Joey |
| 8. You'll find some in the New Forest | Pony |
| 9. Does Long John use this? | Silver |
| 10. Is this P.C? | Copper |
| 11. Show starring the Boswell family | Bread |
| 12. And what it is before it's baked! | Dough |
| 13. Heavy weight | Ton |
| 14. Luciano Pavarotti was one of three? | Tenner |
| 15. Howler or Spider possibly? | Monkey |
| 16. Saturn, Uranus or Neptune? | Far things (!!) |
| 17. Portion of ladies underwear? | Knicker |
| 18. An unwell sea creature (several coins) | Six Quid (sick squid..sorry!). |
| 19. The kid's right! | Groat ...(Goat plus R).... |
| 20. What a striker hopes to do? | Score |
| 21. Bomb fragments | Shrapnel |
| 22. An old bicycle? | Penny Farthing |
| 23. 50% of one | Ha'penny (Half penny) ... |
| 24. Sounds like an old Austrian coin? | Shilling |
| 25. One of Agatha Christie's Young Adventurers | Tuppence |