

General Knowledge:

QUIZ 52.

| Question | | Answer |
|---------------|--|--------------------------------------|
| 1 | Which actor won Oscars for the films Philadelphia and Forrest Gump? | Tom Hanks |
| 2 | What name for a place of wild disorder and confusion is derived from the hospital of St Mary of Bethlehem? | Bedlam |
| 3 | Dulles International is the main airport for which US city? | Washington |
| 4 | The four horse chariot atop the Brandenburg Gate in Berlin faces in which direction? | East |
| 5 | Who had a hit in 1956 with the single Long Tall Sally? | Little Richard |
| 6 | What is the name of the chart which shows the chemical elements in order of atomic number? | The Periodic Table |
| 7 | Which actress starred in the 1976 film version of A Star is Born? | Barbara Streisand |
| 8 | Which writer and barrister created TV series Rumpole of the Bailey? | John Mortimer |
| 9 | Of which organ is the medulla oblongata a part? | The Brain |
| 10 | Who was nicknamed the Lady with the Lamp? | Florence Nightingale |
| 11 | In which European country are the Magyars the largest ethnic group? | Hungary |
| 12 | Who was the intended victim of the Babington Plot? | Elizabeth I |
| 13 | Which Vampire was played on screen by Bela Lugosi and Christopher Lee? | Count Dracula |
| 14 | Which Spanish surrealist painter was born in Figueres in 1904? | Salvador Dali |
| 15 | US Actor Alan Alda played Hawkeye Pierce in the TV series M*A*S*H. What does MASH stand for? | Mobile Army Surgical Hospital |
| 16 | Who played Alf Garnet in the TV series Till Death Us Do Part? | Warren Mitchell |
| 17 | How many lines are there in a sonnet? | 14 |
| 18 | Kabul is the Capital of which country? | Afghanistan |
| 19 | Who was the King of Scotland from 1040 to 1057? | Macbeth |
| 20 | In Medieval times, the tusk of a Narwhal was prized as it was thought to be the horn of which creature? | The Unicorn |
| TOTAL: | | |