

General Knowledge:

QUIZ 64.

Question		Answer
1	Poivre is the French word for what?	Pepper
2	Which figure personifying the US was used on WW1 recruiting posters?	Uncle Sam
3	Which daughter of a famous rock star was appointed Head Designer of fashion house Chloe in 1997?	Stella McCartney
4	Where in Britain is the Sea Stack known as The Old Man of Hoy?	The Orkneys
5	Which U S newspaper has the slogan Democracy dies in darkness?	The Washington Post
6	Which British Keyboard player released the album The Six Wives of Henry VIII in 1973?	Rick Wakeman
7	How many James Bond films starred Timothy Dalton in the lead role?	2
8	According to The Good Beer Guide, what is the most common pub name in Britain?	The Red Lion
9	In which year did Lego go on sale?	1949
10	What are the ingredients of the drink Black Velvet?	Stout and Champagne
11	Of which autonomous region of Spain is Barcelona the Capital?	Catalonia
12	What are two circles which share the same centre called?	Concentric
13	Which British award for industry and enterprise was established in 1965?	The Queens Award
14	German Shepherd dogs are also known by what name?	Alsations
15	Which British athlete won the women's long jump at the 1964 Olympics?	Mary Rand
16	Who was Shakespeare's Moor of Venice?	Othello
17	The Sussex stakes and the Nassau stakes take place annually at which racecourse?	Goodwood
18	Which Championship Football team plays at The Riverside Stadium?	Middlesbrough
19	In which London Street did the fictional detective Sherlock Holmes reside?	Baker Street
20	Which day in the Christian calendar is also known as Mardi Gras?	Shrove Tuesday
Total:		