

Themed Wednesday:

Quiz 50:

or should that be Quiz L ?

Rome & the Romans.

Well if the Romans have done nothing else for us they have provided the subject of this week's Themed Quiz. There are some fifty clues which will hopefully get those grey cells working and lead you to Answers associated (in some aspect) with Rome and its Empires.

I'll send the Solutions out as per usual, next Wednesday.

1. Who according to tradition were the original founders of Rome?
2. Who was the first Roman Emperor (beginning his reign in 27 B.C?)
3. On which river does Rome stand?
4. What did the Romans call Scotland?
5. According to Roman mythology who was King of the Gods?
6. And what was the name of his wife?
7. Which Emperor completed the Colosseum in Rome?
8. Under which Emperor did Christianity become the main religion of the Roman Empire?.....
9. According to tradition when was Rome founded?
10. Which Emperor split the Roman Empire into two parts, the west based in Rome, and the Eastern Empire in Constantinople?

Now a few questions closer to home.....

11. If you were in the settlement the Romans knew as Deva where would you be?
12. And which Roman Road originally ran from Dover to Wroxeter?
13. Who led the first Roman invasion of Britain?
14. What year did the Romans begin their final conquest of Britain?
15. And where was the original Roman Capital of Britain?
16. And what date is commonly held to be the date when they finally left Britain?
17. A revolt against the Romans in AD 60 resulted in three recently founded Roman cities being burnt to the ground. Which ones?
18. And who led this rebellion?
19. About how long was the Roman Empire in control of much of Britain?
20. What was the name of the turf and wood wall that stretched 39 miles from the Firth of Forth to the Firth of Clyde in Scotland?

21. Which ancient Roman road linked the modern places of Gloucester to Cirencester and Silchester?
.....

Name the modern British places that were given the following Roman names:

22. Aquae Sulis

23. Eboracum

24. Ratae Corieltavorum

25. Verulamium (also spelt Verulanium)

26. Durlipons

And now back to some more general questions:

27. The ancient city of Rome was built on how many hills?

28. Julius Caesar was killed on the Ides of March: exactly what date in March is this?.....

29. Name the naval battle between Octavian and the combined forces of Antony & Cleopatra?
.....

30. The Romans ate glis glis as a delicacy. What exactly is this?

31. Which important road connected Rome to Brindisi in southern Italy?

32. The word gladiator comes from the Latin word Gladius: what does this mean?

33. Which Roman General, politician and rival of Pompey defeated the slave revolt led by Spartacus?
.....

34. Which Roman Emperor made his horse a Consul?

35. And can you name the horse?

36. Composed of 360 soldiers what name was given to the standard tactical unit of a Roman Legion?
.....

37. Which four letters translating to “the Roman Senate and People” appear on currency, documents, monuments and Roman Legion insignia?

38. Caligula was the nickname of one of Rome’s Emperors. The name refers to a little pair of ...what?
.....

39. Who is the Roman God of War?

40. Who did Rome fight the Punic Wars against?

41. The Great Fire of Rome broke out in 64 AD. Who was Emperor at the time?

42. It is largely believed the bishop of Milan was the first to use the phrase “when in Rome do as the Romans do” in the 4th century AD. To what was he referring?
43. Which Roman city was destroyed by a volcanic explosion in AD 79?
44. Virgil wrote an Epic Poem about the founding of the Roman Empire: what was it called?
45. The pilum was an important weapon used by Roman Legionnaires: what type of weapon was it?
46. Taking advantage of a weakened Empire which Roman tribe sacked Rome in 410 A.D?.....
47. In Roman numerals what does the letter D represent?
48. What year is known as the Year of the Five Emperors?
49. Who is commonly recognised as the last (though illegitimate) Western Roman Emperor?.....
50. What were the household guards - below?- of the Roman Emperor called?

“The Question Master’s Answer is final...or else!”

(Basildon & Billericay U3A: 10.03.21.)