

Dear all,

Firstly a quick correction to one of the answers in Wednesday's General Knowledge Quiz: the answer to Question 8 "What colours make up the flag of Norway?" should - of course - have been Red White and Blue - not so much an error as an omission! Oops - but I'm sure you clever people all picked up my not so deliberate mistake/typo.

Anyway please find attached the answers to Friday's Themed Quiz on the High Street: in these difficult times I hope all those still trading have a rosy future although I can't admit to having rushed down to any of the "non-essential" shops that opened last week....

I have also attached this week's "words" Quiz which I hope you enjoy - it's not as daunting as it first seems, honest, but may be one you have to put down and go back to.....I also suggest you read it all the way through prior to starting.....

Anyway enjoy the warm weather, and answers to this, plus the new General Knowledge Quiz, will be with you on Wednesday,

Peter.
