

1st September 2020 - Note from Peter Cubley

Dear all,

Well its the first day of both September and meteorological Autumn today and who'd have thought back in March I'd still be sending out Quizzes?

As things continue to return (?) to the "new normal" with schools due to re-open and those of a working age being encouraged to go back, a number of the activities I used to do are also slowly resuming: I hope this is the case with you. I have already received a few requests from people not to be sent the Quiz anymore as they are resuming other pursuits.

Anyway this means that as of next week I will only be sending out Quizzes once a week which will be on a Wednesday: for the rest of September I am planning to send both the General Knowledge Quiz and the Themed Quiz at the same time, which means you can always keep one of them for the weekend. The answers to both will then come out the following Wednesday.

From the start of October I then plan to just send the General Knowledge Quiz out. However - as with the Government - I reserve the right to make a "U" turn should circumstances change drastically!

Returning to the current Quizzes, the Answers to last week's Themed Quiz on Past Times & Hobbies are attached: I must admit I hadn't heard of all the hobbies but with reference to Q17 those of you who know me well enough to know I am a Tegestologist can rest easy in that during lock down I have been through my whole collection of just under 27,000 mats! (I told you we needed to get back to doing other things!)

This week's General Knowledge Quiz is also attached - Answers on Thursday.

In the meantime, as ever, stay safe and healthy,

Peter.
