Dear all,

As advised last week I am now only sending Quizzes out once a week - on a Wednesday - although for the remainder of September this will be both a General Knowledge Quiz and a Themed Quiz.

As such please find the Answers to last week's Quiz on Pop Groups/Artists which I hope brought back a few memories of misspent younger days etc.

This week's General Knowledge Quiz is also attached plus a Themed Quiz on U.K. Geography: the Answers to both will be with you in seven days when there may well also be a few Dingbats to solve.

In the meantime keep safe and healthy,

Peter.
