

Themed Friday:

Quiz Thirteen: Money.

Well following last week's Quiz based on the High Street, and with the welcome news that pubs and hairdressers etc are to re-open from early July and also as we are being told it's time to restart the economy it seemed appropriate to use Money as our theme this week..

Below please find clues relating to English currency which relate both to the currency itself as well as a few slang expressions relating to amounts. As usual I'll send the answers out on Monday.
