

“It’s Only a Virus” Quiz:

B & B U3A .

The answers to the questions/clues below all contain either the letters VI or RUS in them, in this order. See how many you can identify. They won’t always be at the start of the answer e.g Frustrated or Revile. There is also a (hopefully) very obvious order to the answers which I am sure you will all have spotted by Answers 5 or 6 and which will help you getting the correct answers to Questions 32 and 39.

I will send the answers out on Wednesday: have fun!

- ~~~~~
1. What is the capital of Lithuania?
 2. In which country where were the Summer Olympics held in 1980?
 3. What was the name of Nelson’s flagship at Trafalgar?
 4. What is Ferric Oxide better known as?
 5. What is a female fox called?
 6. Another name for a trick/deceitful action?
 7. A property in Monopoly?
 8. Jamaican Chef and TV personality.
 9. Who threatened “I will thcream and thcream ‘till I’ m thick”?
 10. This was used in Ancient Egypt instead of paper.
 11. This Comedian won Joke of the Year at the Edinburgh Festival in 2014?
 - 12 An Indiana Jones Film?
 - 13.The growing of Grape Vines?
 14. The capital of Belgium?
 15. Who won Football’s European Cup in 1982?
 16. In 1992 he sang about his “ Achy breaky heart”.
 17. A disco classic: the most famous hit song by Gloria Gaynor.
 - 18.A character from the Magic Roundabout.
 19. Dawn French played her from 1994 to 1998.
 20. An island country in the Mediterranean.
 21. Louis Mountbatten was the last to fill this position.
 22. Early morning bird song.

23. "I don't believe it!"
24. He was raised from the dead.
25. A member of the Sex Pistols.
26. Called by Pope Urban II in 1095.
27. Golden Balls?
28. From the higher echelons of Society.
29. Which instrument is the leader of the Orchestra?
30. A Bond Film starring Sean Connery.
31. The Chief Administrative Officer of a University.
32. A sign of the Zodiac.
33. New or untouched.
34. The enemy of U.N.C.L.E.
35. Winner.
36. An Egyptian God.
37. Acetic acid.
38. Curt or off-handed.
39. Another sign of the Zodiac.
40. Where you might see four Presidents heads in the U.S.A.
41. Who sang YMCA?
42. Another name for Hydrogen Cyanide.
43. An official of the Ottoman Empire.
44. TV Sitcom that ran from 1986-1991 starring Karl Howman?
45. A family of venomous snakes.
46. Nickname of the singer Barry White.
47. Any car built between 1919 and 1930.
48. The MP for South-West Norfolk.
49. Very bright.
50. The MP for Colchester from 1997 to 2015.
51. Preparation for your exams.
52. It's capital is Minsk.

53. Watchful or alert.
54. 2018 British Political scandal involving post war Immigration from the Caribbean.
55. Forked twig used to find water.
56. Children's TV character from 1960 to the present day. Boom,boom!
57. Before Liz she was the longest serving woman to hold this role.
58. Octavia Hill was instrumental in its founding.
59. Another way to go?
60. An appetizer from Italy.
61. Keep an eye on the Exam candidates.
62. She had a Number One hit with "The Power of Love".
63. Should this clue be the other way around?
64. A 1985 film starring Michael Douglas.
65. He piloted Thunderbird 2.
66. To be sent down from University.
67. Restore to life.
68. He co-founded the satirical magazine "Private Eye".
69. A work by Dante.
70. British Philosopher 1872-1970.
71. They had a Number One hit with "Eye of the Tiger".
72. Liverpool FC's all-time leading goal scorer.
73. One of the Twins in Twelfth Night.
74. Central London Tube station on the Piccadilly Line.
75. A bridge.
76. Crabs, lobsters, shrimps and prawns.
77. 2004 Film starring Leonardo de Caprio as Howard Hughes.
78. A character from "The Simpsons".
79. Ravens, Jackdaws, and Magpies belong to this family.
80. The act of coming in or entering without welcome or invitation.
81. Invented by John Logie Baird.
82. The official motto of the United States of America.

83. Look out.
84. Relating to the countryside.
85. Eager/keen.
86. Kingdom founded in 1701 and now part of Germany.
87. Sporting event for injured members of the Armed Services.
88. There is a small museum in Coniston devoted to this person.
89. Strong and energetic.
90. Baby food.
91. Courage and Patience are examples.
92. I'd like you to carefully read this clue.
93. A bad habit.
94. A brief but intense infatuation.
95. It may change.
96. Steal cows or horses.
97. Leif Erikson was one.
98. A capital Christmas vegetable.
99. Extremely bad or unpleasant.
100. Which King said "If we are victorious in one more battle with the Romans we shall be totally ruined".