

“Words” Monday:      Quiz 9.

Well after all the focus on PPE (or Personal Protective Equipment) over the last few weeks it seemed appropriate to test your knowledge - today's Quiz will (hopefully) through solving the clues lead you to Words which all contain the letters PPE consecutively. For example “from the higher echelons of Society” would be “upper crust”, or “might appear in Court” would be “appellant.” As usual most are straightforward with the occasional devious one to mislead you!

I hope you enjoy them – answers on Wednesday.
