

“Words” Monday: Quiz 14.

The clues below should lead you to a word or phrase which will all include successive vowels :
for example “ Easily crumbled” would be Friable, or “Any bird of the Columbidae family” would be a Pigeon.

I hope you enjoy them – answers on Wednesday.

1. Calm
2. Almost
3. Young horse
4. Garment made of tartan cloth
5. French Mime artist
6. Southend's is the longest!
7. They had a Bad Moon Rising
8. You might have one on Sunday
9. Slightly damp
10. Breed of large dog named after a Canadian island
11. Express approval/admiration
12. Brontosaurus was one
13. In the 70's T.Rex were one!
14. Viennese Psychologist
15. The distance between two sides of an object
16. Where Fawlty Towers was based
17. Mrs Brown's got a lovely one... ..
18. Sweetened bread roll
19. Look for
20. It used to be Bombay
21. Robin's belle (not bow!)
22. Hell for... ..
23. Thwart
24. Jackie Kennedy's maiden name
25. Brand of Champagne

26. A partially dried grape
27. It takes Allsorts!
28. The second oldest Infantry Regiment
29. French make of cast iron cookware/pans
30. Element named after the first female winner of a Nobel Prize
31. The capital of the Transvaal
32. Nickname of Dennis Skinner M.P.
33. Hot chocolate?
34. Open tart with a savoury filling
35. Of great importance
36. Black & white cow
37. Showing immaturity
38. His height was six cubits and a span
39. Moulded paper pulp
40. No need to throw this away when finished
41. 4d.
42. She attends the Queen
43. The largest European grouse
44. To persuade/get your own way by coaxing
45. This bird appears in a well-known tongue twister
46. Change one letter to make the bird nice!
47. Afraid of enclosed spaces
48. Highest importance
49. Holy, Godly
50. Capricorn

(Written for Basildon & Billericay U3A: Quiz Group. 29.06.20.)