

“Words” Monday: Quiz 7.

Well I trust everyone had chance to commemorate V.E. day on Friday. Today’s Quiz is again on words but for a change I’ve decided to put some colour into your lives as every clue should lead to a colour or colours in the answer. For example “elaborate or flowery phrase” would be purple prose, or “Classic Novel by Anna Sewell” would be Black Beauty, and before the pedantics contact me, for the purpose of this Quiz Black and White are counted as colours!

I hope you enjoy them – answers on Wednesday.
