

“Words” Wednesday: Quiz 34.

“In the beginning...and the end”

After last week’s Quiz on U.S. Presidents which is probably one of the more difficult I have set (but educational for all that!.) this week I have returned to a “Words” Quiz which you will all hopefully find a bit simpler. However I’m not going to tell you the theme but it should be quite easy to work out once you’ve got a few Answersall you have to do is work out a word that fits the clue and the theme.

I hope you enjoy them – Solutions next Wednesday.

1. Midday
2. Fear
3. Faithful
4. River in Venezuela
5. Recall
6. Ask
7. South American Mammal
8. Absent from School
9. Hevea Brasiliensis
10. Scandinavian Capital
11. No longer living
12.who’s there?
13. Idea
14. Ancient wine container
15. Think again
16. Canadian Province
17. Casement
18. Shade
19. Legwear
20. A precious stone
21. Special ability
22. The noise of a crowd
23. Simple organism found in Coral

24. Old shilling
25. Severe or Cruel
26. An imperious request
27. A branch of Mathematics
28. Cut throat or safety
29. Disease caused by the Chicken Pox virus
30. European plant with pink flowers found chiefly on Sea cliffs and mountains
31. It gives light
32. Overlook or pardon
33. Alan Freeman's nickname
34. Swedish Pop Group
35. Piece of wood or stone over a door
36. Not too big and not too little
37. Slang for a medal
38. Soft moist part of fruit
39. Putrefaction
40. A proviso added to something already agreed
41. A building that has been subdivided and let to several families to inhabit
42. To hit with your foot
43. Ayers Rock
44. Very smart
45. A medicinal plant found in Eastern Asia and North America
46. Deep rooted plant of the pea family - Lucerne
47. Portable dwelling or shelter
48. Word for word
49. Solemn and thoughtful
50. To make or become silent

(Written for Basildon & Billericay U3A: Quiz Group. 18.11.20.)